

Teaching The Trivium

by Harvey and Laurie Bluedorn

Harvey and Laurie Bluedorn speak from experience on questions concerning the compatibility of the Classical approach and the Christian, how to give your children the tools they need to teach themselves, and using a variety of resources within the Classical framework. They also lay down a spiritual and philosophical foundation and a practical program for Christian Homeschooling in the Classical style. This book will challenge the Christian homeschooler to diligence, excellence and faithfulness in the education of their children.

$34.95

For The Children's Sake

by Susan Schaeffer Macaulay

This book is a "classic" among books on homeschooling. It is especially useful to the new homeschooler or those considering homeschooling. It gives valuable insight into the education process. The author quotes extensively from the works of Charlotte Mason and is an encouragement to any homeschooling parent.

$14.95

Also by this author:

For the Family's Sake

$17.95

Classical Education and the Homeschool

by Douglas Wilson

This booklet introduces the topic of Classical and Christian education with an overview of the trivium (grammar, logic, rhetoric) as used in a Biblical context. It highlights the unique advantages of such an approach in the homeschool and seeks to address questions and concerns that a classical approach poses for homeschoolers.

$7.95

Also by this author:

Excused Absence

$11.95

Recovering the Lost Tools of Learning

$16.95

A Case for Classical Christian Education

$17.95

An Introduction to Classical Education

by Christopher A. Perrin

This small book is an ideal introduction to Classical Education written by the headmaster of a classical academy in Pennsylvania. It traces the history of classical education and describes its modern renaissance.

$5.50

The Well Trained Mind (3rd. Ed.)

A Guide to Classical Education at Home by Jessie Wise and Susan Wise Bauer

This book is packed full of info on classical education...764 pages packed!!! Topics such as the necessity of a classical education, what to teach and why, resources, evaluation, postsecondary education, and careers are discussed. A great resource.

$39.95

A Charlotte Mason Companion

by Karen Andreola

Although this book is not necessarily associated with the Classical Approach, it is helpful in keeping your home-schooling experience relaxed and enjoyable in the early years. Our program reflects a Charlotte Mason approach in the areas of Science, living books, and narration. We recommend this book for ideas on gentle ways to teach your children.

$19.95

Shepherding a Child's Heart

by Ted Tripp

This book is about how to speak to the heart of your child. Dr. Tripp draws on over 20 years of experience as a pastor, counselor, school administrator and father in giving this valuable help to parents.

$13.95

Instructing a Child's Heart

by Ted Tripp

Picking up where Shepherding a Child's Heart left off, this new book is a clear, biblical, and practical book that helps parents provide their children with a consistent, persuasive, biblical framework for understanding the world God has made and their place in it.

$13.95

The Organized Homeschooler

by Vicki Caruana

A veteran educator has compiled her most-requested homeschooling workshop material so that families can become more proficient in educating their kids. Covering issues like time management, space usage and materials, Vicki Caruana addresses a variety of organizational needs to help families structure not only their work areas, but also their thinking, their paperwork and each other. By the book's end, she inspires readers to re-evaluate, reorganize, and form new habits, leaving behind the stress and inefficiency of a cluttered life.

$16.95

When You Rise Up

by R. C. Sproul Jr.

Who should teach our children? What should they be taught? What is the goal of education? Using Scripture as a basis, R. C. Sproul Jr. provides answers to these and other similar questions. He maintains that education is discipleship; the goal is seeing your children bear fruit, grow in grace and become more like Christ.

$10.95

Educating the Wholehearted Child

by Clay and Sally Clarkson

"How to use real books and real life to make your home a vibrant center of living and learning for you and your child". This book has practical help and suggestions for making your homeschool journey relaxed, yet orderly.

$22.00

Also Available

Loving the Little Years

$12.95

God's Names

$16.95

Repairing the Ruins

$21.95

On Secular Education

$8.50

The Seven Laws of Teaching

$12.95

The Core Curriculum

$12.95

100 Top Picks for Homeschool Curr.

$21.95

Homeschooling for Eternity

$16.00

Homeschooling Methods

$14.95

Biblical Home Education

$14.95

Books Children Love

$18.95

All Through the Ages

$29.95

When Homeschooling Gets Tough

$9.95

All Things for Good

$8.95

Homeschooling from a Biblical Worldview

$12.00

The Book Tree

$21.95

Call the Sabbath a Delight

$9.50

The Enemy Within

$11.95

The Glory of Christ

$8.95

The Lord's Day (Pipa)

$9.95

And MORE here!

For more information on these and other products, visit our website at www.treeoflifeathome.com