Training Hearts, Teaching Minds
by Starr Meade

There is a real need for the church to recapture much of what has been all but lost in the last century. Fathers, especially, need to take the initiative to lead their families in worship and understanding of the Bible, the great historic confessions, and the catechisms. This is a great "family worship" resource organized in six day units, each focusing on a catechism question from the Westminster Shorter Catechism.
